One cupful washed lentils, two medium sized potatoes (cut into small cubes), one onion and two pieces of celery cut into small pieces, ham bone or small piece of lean ham, two quarts of cold water, season to taste. Put all together in a saucepan and boil about five hours. Thicken with butter and flour; cook together until it begins to turn brown; stir it into soup; boil a few minutes longer and serve. If lentils are soaked overnight two hours' cooking is sufficient.

Tomato Marmalade.

Scald and pare four quarts of ripe tomatoes. Cut two lemons in halves lengthwise and then slice very thin. Seed one cupful of raisins. Weigh out four pounds (eight cupfuls) of sugar, granulated, and put all the ingredients into a preserving kettle in layers. Heat slowly to the boiling point, then simmer until the mixture is of the consistency of marmalade. No one flavor should be recognizable. Seal while hot. This makes five pints.

Okra Soup.

One can of okra, three cups of milk, two cups of white stock or even water. Beat, strain and season with plenty of butter, pepper and salt. Serve with toasted crackers. This is one of the quickest and nicest soups on the emergency shelf, and it is too little known.

"Dr. Miles' Nervine Completely Cured Our Little Boy of Fits."

A family can suffer no greater affliction than to have a child subject to fits or epilepsy. Many a father or mother would give their all to restore such a child to health.

"I am heartily glad to tell you of our little boy who was completely cured of fits. He commenced having them at two years of age and had them for four years. I tried three doctors and one specialist but all of them said he could not be cured, but Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills made a complete cure. He is now hale, hearty and gay. It has been three years since he had the last spell. I shall give Dr. Miles' medicines praise wherever I go. You are at liberty to use this letter as you see fit and anyone writing to me I will gladly answer if they enclose stamp for reply."

A REPRIEVE IS GRANTED

sent word that he would go to Nashville for the purpose of giving the matter his closest attention and he set Monday as the date for hearing those interested in the case.

While here the governor has not only had the record in the Fitzgerald case but in at least a hundred other cases, many of which had been handed down by Governor Patterson, although it had been generally regarded that the last governor had found time to settle all pardon matters which had been brought before him.

The governor stated that he would probably return to Newport about the middle of the week. A reprieve was granted and the date for Fitzgerald's execution set for August 31.

MEETINGS IN FIRST DISTRICT

in agriculture make this move a very popular one, and Congressman Sells will certainly have the co-operation of the farmers in his effort to advance the interests of the farmers and farming in East Tennessee.

The farming element is looking forward to great accomplishments along the line. The farmers feel that heretofore too little attention has been given to their interests by their representatives and too much to politics and politicians. This movement comes at the very time when there is a great awakening in the way of building public roads and development of this section, and it is predicted that it will not be long until the agricultural interest of the country will take a long step forward and the "back home movement" and "back to the farm" cry yield results through the advancement of the rural sections along agricultural lines.

MARY MOORE TALLEY CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Miss Mary Moore Talley, the attractive little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Talley, celebrated her birthday last Saturday afternoon, and although the day was rainy, a large number of the young lady's friends called and brought many pretty gifts.

The young folks had a delightful afternoon and the contests were greatly enjoyed. The girls had a bag striking game and participated blindfolded. Margaret Talley, Elizabeth Alexander and Willie May Sparks were successful in striking it, and Miss Sparks won the prize in the tossup.

The boys' contest was a game, pitching the ball through a prettily decorated hoop and Paul Brown won, as he was the only one to accomplish the feat.

As the young guests entered the Talley home delicious lemonade was served in the hall. After the contests, the guests were taken to the spacious dining hall where bananas, Kern's cream and the finest cake were served. In commenting upon the excellence of the cake, the guests learned that they were the work of Miss Elma Talley, which was quite a surprise, for they would have been a credit to any lady of Newport.

Those present were: Josephine Rich, Desire Brown, Aileen Holland, Kathleen Knisley, Grace Walker, Eula Boyer, Elizabeth Boyer, Elizabeth Alexander, Annie Rowe Driskill, Lella Fisher, Maud Ella McMahan, Jennie Jones, Margaret Talley, Goldie Holder, Louise Susong, Edna Fisher, Frankie Mae Blazer, Letha Burke, Willie Mae Sparks, Hugh Rich, Paul Brown, Gordon Robinson, Frank Knisley Rhea Dukes, Tom Weaver, Hugh Holder, Burnett Sisk, Tom Driskill, Eugene Parrott, George Hickey, Hugh Huff, Jr., Alexander Lee, Mrs. Alex Blazer, Mrs. Jetta Lee, and Mrs. Hugh Huff.

ELLABORATE

SOCIAL AFFAIR

Mrs. L. S. Allen entertained charmingly with a delightful reception Wednesday in compliment to Mrs. F. A. Carter of Sweetwater and Mrs. F. T. Barrow Jr., of Danville, Va.

Mrs. Allen, assisted by Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Barrow, Mrs. Charlie Seehorn, Mrs. W. D. McSween and Miss Gleason, received in the living room of her attractive home. The decorations throughout the apartments were potted plants, vines and roses. In the dining room the green and white color scheme was carried out. The table was covered with a lace cloth and the central ornament was the silver candelabrum burning green tapers. Mrs. J. H. LaRue and Miss Lucile Robinson served tea here.

The punch table was in the hall and Mrs. H. F. Holt and Miss Townsells Jones presided.

In the ice cream course the colors, green and white were also used. About fifty guests called during the evening.
